Designer's Notes

Inspired by their minimalistic living, Scandinavian interiors are influenced by tranquillity and nature. The region's rural landscapes are expressed through the Scandinavian's distinct approach. Fabrics from our Canterbury collection illustrate this simplistic style. All the designs offer a natural, hand-crafted feel, in a combination of weaves, jacquards and embroideries. Their style showcases bright, airy living spaces that are stripped back to the bare essentials. Influences of nature can also be seen with the addition of greenery. Incorporating houseplants, from eucalyptus and ferns to spider plants, adds hues of green to a neutral palette.
